

Code of Conduct

Each member and alternate member of Climate Change Program of China Testing & Certification International Group (short as CTC) will:

1. Discharge his/her duties with honesty, integrity and full regard for his/her responsibilities as a CTC member.
2. Respect the confidentiality of all confidential information acquired in his/her position as a CTC member and not makes improper use of or discloses such confidential information to third parties.
3. Observe the principles of independence, accuracy and integrity in dealings with other CTC members, the CDM EB, the UNFCCC secretariat and CDM PPs.
4. Have no personal or direct financial interest in any matter under consideration by CTC.
5. Exercise personal discretion in deciding whether s/he has a real or perceived conflict with respect to any matter under consideration by CTC and disclose to the CTC any actual or perceived conflicts of interest of a direct or indirect nature of which s/he is aware and which s/he believes could compromise in any way the reputation or performance of CTC.
6. Remain silent during the CTC's deliberations and decisions as to any matter under consideration by CTC for which s/he has an actual or perceived a conflict of interest.
7. Maintain the principle of transparency in the preparation and delivery of information to other CTC members and CDM PPs.
8. Remain committed to observing, developing and implementing the principles embodied in this Code in a conscientious, consistent and rigorous manner.